

Remuneration Policy – CVM Resolution 179

Dear Clients,

In accordance with Resolution No. 179 of the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission ("CVM"), we would like to inform you about important changes to Banco ABC Brasil's operations and practices.

Pursuant to CVM Resolution 179, we have outlined below the definitions and applicability of our remuneration policy ("Remuneration Policy"):

General Definitions:

Banco ABC Brasil will inform its clients about the remuneration received for the distribution of the following products offered by us:

- Investment Funds;
- Debentures (Local bonds) offered in the secondary market.

Remuneration amounts will be disclosed to Banco ABC Brasil clients at the time of contracting and subsequently, via a Quarterly Statement made available through our service channels.

Finally, we inform you that the general standards of our Remuneration Policy adhere to the ANBIMA Trading/Self-Regulation Code

We are committed to ensuring that all changes are implemented efficiently, so as to continue providing high-quality service aligned with best market practices. Our team of specialists is available to clarify any questions or provide additional information regarding the new regulation.

Thank you for your continued trust in Banco ABC Brasil. We remain dedicated to providing you with the best possible service.

Sincerely,

Banco ABC Brasil
